Re: US v. Vilar – 05 cr 621 – Request for reconsideration of Denial of Late Curfew on October 12

Dear Judge Sullivan:

I ask for reconsideration of the Order (DOC 606) denying Mr. Vilar's request for a late curfew on October 12, 2013.

After I wrote the letter-request, Pretrial Services Officer Dennis Khilkevich wrote to me that he did not object.

While he just wrote me that he would defer to the fact that there is a curfew in place, as Your Honor wrote, I think it relevant that Mr. Khilkevich did not himself have an objection, and I ask the Court to reconsider.

Mr. Gergiev has invited Mr. Vilar (and others) to attend, and as Mr. Gergiev is conducting, Mr. Vilar would appreciate the opportunity to not disturb the conductor by having to leave the opera before it is over that night. (The opera does not itself end until 11:35

I respectfully ask that the Court reconsider the denial of an extended curfew and that the Court extend Mr. Vilar's curfew on October 12, 2013 to 1:00 am, if not 1:30, so he can see the entire opera and get home.

Very truly yours,

/s/
Vivian Shevitz

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Defendant Vilar's curfew on October 12, 2013 is extended to 1:30 a.m.

SO ORDERED
